SOURCED FROM PUBLISHED INTERVIEWS · NOT AFFILIATED OR ENDORSED

About this ebook

Mark Wahlberg's daily schedule went viral when he shared it on Instagram — a 2:30am wake-up, multiple workouts and a 7:30pm bedtime. More recently he's shown the high-protein breakfast he eats every single day.

This ebook is an independent summary of publicly available interviews and articles. It is not affiliated with, authorised or endorsed by Mark Wahlberg, their trainers, representatives, or any film studio. Names are used only to identify whose publicly reported routine is being described. Every reported fact is paraphrased and numbered to its source on the final page. Sections marked Valtair adaptation are our own general suggestions, not the celebrity's plan. This is general information, not medical, nutritional or dermatological advice — check with a qualified professional before changing your diet, training or skincare, especially if you are pregnant, take medication or have a health condition.

What was reported

1. In an Instagram Q&A, Wahlberg shared a 'typical daily schedule' starting at 2:30am and ending with bed at 7:30pm.[1]

2. The schedule included multiple workouts, three scheduled snack times, a 30-minute prayer slot and a daily cryotherapy session.[1]

3. In a later Instagram video he said: 'I eat the same breakfast every day but I feel better every day!!'[2]

4. That breakfast — eaten around 7am after a 4am workout — included hard-boiled eggs, scrambled eggs with turkey, salmon and blueberries, prepared by his chef Lawrence Duran.[2]

CHAPTER 2

A reported day

7:30 pm	Bed

From Wahlberg's own Instagram posts as reported by HuffPost and HELLO!.

TRAINING NOTES

- Multiple short training blocks per day plus recovery (cryo) were part of his posted routine.
- The real takeaway is a fixed, repeatable structure — not the 2:30am alarm.

CHAPTER 3

The principles

Strip away the film budget, private chefs and trainers, and the reported approach comes down to a handful of repeatable rules. These are our plain-English take on them:

VALTAIR ADAPTATION

- Walk 8,000–12,000 steps a day — build up slowly.
- Same simple breakfast most days to remove decisions.
- Protein + vegetables at lunch and dinner.
- Fixed bedtime; aim for 7–9 hours of sleep.

PORTION GUIDE (HAND METHOD)

FOOD	PER MEAL
Protein	1–2 palms
Vegetables	1–2 fists
Carbs	1–2 cupped hands
Fats	1–2 thumbs

Smaller or less active? Use the lower number. Larger or training hard? The higher one.

Your 7-day plan

An original, everyday-budget week inspired by the principles — not the celebrity's actual menu. Indian-kitchen friendly; swap freely.

Style: Simple routine week (steps + whole food)

	MORNING	MIDDAY	EVENING
Day 1	Eggs + fruit + toast	Chicken / dal + rice + veg	Paneer / fish + sabzi + roti
Day 2	Eggs + fruit + toast	Rajma + rice + salad	Grilled chicken + veg
Day 3	Eggs + fruit + toast	Chole + 1 bhatura-free roti + salad	Fish curry + rice
Day 4	Eggs + fruit + toast	Chicken wrap + curd	Dal khichdi + veg
Day 5	Eggs + fruit + toast	Paneer bowl + quinoa	Soya / tofu stir-fry
Day 6	Eggs + fruit + toast	Home thali (dal, sabzi, roti, curd)	Grilled fish + salad
Day 7	Relaxed breakfast	Family meal	Light soup + protein

Add vegetables generously. Vegetarian? Use paneer, tofu, soya, dal and curd for protein.

CHAPTER 6

Read this first: cautions

- Sleep matters more than an early alarm. Shift the whole schedule to fit 7–9 hours.
- Repeating a breakfast is fine — rotate the rest of the day for variety and nutrients.
- Celebrity transformations are short-term, supervised and often timed to a shoot. Sustainable progress is slower — and that is normal.
- Stop and see a doctor if you feel faint, unwell, or your relationship with food starts to feel stressful.

CHAPTER 7

4-week tracker

Count the days per week you managed each habit (0–7).

HABIT	W1	W2	W3	W4
Hit protein at every meal
Ate mostly whole foods
Drank 2–3 L water

Slept 7+ hours
