REPORTED BEAUTY ROUTINE · JENNIFER ANISTON

Ageless Basics

A gentle-retinol routine built on a few loyal products

SOURCED FROM PUBLISHED INTERVIEWS · NOT AFFILIATED OR ENDORSED

About this ebook

Jennifer Aniston has said she likes to experiment with skincare but stays loyal to a handful of products that work — with a gentle retinol from her facialist as her favourite step.

This ebook is an independent summary of publicly available interviews and articles. It is not affiliated with, authorised or endorsed by Jennifer Aniston, their trainers, representatives, or any film studio. Names are used only to identify whose publicly reported routine is being described. Every reported fact is paraphrased and numbered to its source on the final page. Sections marked Valtair adaptation are our own general suggestions, not the celebrity's plan. This is general information, not medical, nutritional or dermatological advice — check with a qualified professional before changing your diet, training or skincare, especially if you are pregnant, take medication or have a health condition.

CHAPTER 1

What was reported

1. Her favourite step is a retinol serum from her facialist, Shani Darden: 'Her retinol is so good, and her serums are fantastic.'[1]
2. Darden's serum is described as a gentler, slow-release retinol with lactic acid and antioxidants.[1]
3. She uses a gentle drugstore face wash daily.[1]
4. She uses a hydrating serum stick to prep skin before makeup.[1]
5. She likes to 'move around a lot' with skincare but stays loyal to a few effective products.[1]

CHAPTER 2

The reported routine

Left: what was reported. Right: a budget-friendly equivalent (Valtair adaptation — no brand endorsements, choose what suits your skin).

STEP	REPORTED	YOUR VERSION
Cleanse	A gentle daily face wash	A mild, fragrance-free cleanser
Tone	An exfoliating toner	Optional — a gentle toner a few times a week
Retinol (PM)	A gentle slow-release retinol	Start a low-strength retinol 2–3 nights a week
Prep (AM)	A hydrating serum stick before makeup	A hydrating serum or balm
Protect (AM)	—	Broad-spectrum SPF 30+ (essential when using retinol)

Products and steps reported at the time of the source articles; routines change.

Make it yours: by skin type

The same idea, tuned to your skin. General guidance only.

SKIN TYPE	ADJUST LIKE THIS
Oily / acne-prone	Gel cleanser; light non-comedogenic moisturiser; niacinamide or salicylic acid a few nights a week; matte SPF.
Dry	Cream or milky cleanser; richer ceramide moisturiser; hydrating serum (glycerin / hyaluronic); cream SPF.
Combination	Gentle gel-cream cleanser; lighter moisturiser on the T-zone, richer on dry areas; SPF every morning.
Sensitive	Fragrance-free everything; fewer steps; patch-test new products for 3 days on the jaw; mineral SPF often tolerated better.

INTRODUCE ONE PRODUCT AT A TIME

Wait about two weeks between new products so you know what is helping — or irritating.

CHAPTER 4

The lifestyle side

- Find what works and stay loyal to it.
- Retinol needs patience — weeks, not days.

MORNING / NIGHT CHEAT CARD

MORNING	NIGHT
Cleanse (or rinse)	Remove makeup & SPF
Serum (optional)	Cleanse
Moisturise	Treat (optional)
SPF 30+	Moisturise

CHAPTER 5

Read this first: cautions

- Patch-test every new product or DIY mix on your jaw or inner arm for 24–72 hours.
- Celebrity skin is also shaped by professional facials, make-up artists, lighting and editing — be kind to your own reflection.
- Retinoids and strong acids: avoid during pregnancy unless a doctor approves, and always wear SPF.
- Kitchen ingredients (lemon, raw spices) can irritate; skip them if your skin is sensitive.
- Persistent acne, rashes or pigmentation deserve a dermatologist, not more products.
