About this ebook

Priyanka Chopra Jonas is known for a simple philosophy: keep it short. Her night routine reportedly rarely goes beyond five steps, and her biggest beauty regret is overdoing makeup.

This ebook is an independent summary of publicly available interviews and articles. It is not affiliated with, authorised or endorsed by Priyanka Chopra Jonas, their trainers, representatives, or any film studio. Names are used only to identify whose publicly reported routine is being described. Every reported fact is paraphrased and numbered to its source on the final page. Make it yours: by skin type

The same idea, tuned to your skin. General guidance only.

SKIN TYPE	ADJUST LIKE THIS
Oily / acne-prone	Gel cleanser; light non-comedogenic moisturiser; niacinamide or salicylic acid a few nights a week; matte SPF.
Dry	Cream or milky cleanser; richer ceramide moisturiser; hydrating serum (glycerin / hyaluronic); cream SPF.
Combination	Gentle gel-cream cleanser; lighter moisturiser on the T-zone, richer on dry areas; SPF every morning.
Sensitive	Fragrance-free everything; fewer steps; patch-test new products for 3 days on the jaw; mineral SPF often tolerated better.

INTRODUCE ONE PRODUCT AT A TIME

Wait about two weeks between new products so you know what is helping — or irritating.

CHAPTER 4

The lifestyle side

- Five steps maximum — night and makeup.
- Grow out and shape brows to frame the face.

MORNING / NIGHT CHEAT CARD

MORNING	NIGHT

Moisturise	Treat (optional)
SPF 30+	Moisturise

CHAPTER 5

Read this first: cautions

- Patch-test every new product or DIY mix on your jaw or inner arm for 24–72 hours.
- Celebrity skin is also shaped by professional facials, make-up artists, lighting and editing — be kind to your own reflection.
- Retinoids and strong acids: avoid during pregnancy unless a doctor approves, and always wear SPF.
- Kitchen ingredients (lemon, raw spices) can irritate; skip them if your skin is sensitive.
- Persistent acne, rashes or pigmentation deserve a dermatologist, not more products.
