BEFORE YOU BEGIN

About this ebook

Margot Robbie's routine, pieced together from interviews with Vogue UK and ELLE UK, is built on a few non-negotiables — chief among them never going to bed in makeup.

This ebook is an independent summary of publicly available interviews and articles. It is not affiliated with, authorised or endorsed by Margot Robbie, their trainers, representatives, or any film studio. Names are used only to identify whose publicly reported routine is being described. Every reported fact is paraphrased and numbered to its source on the final page. Sections marked Valtair adaptation are our own general suggestions, not the celebrity's plan. This is general information, not medical, nutritional or dermatological advice — check with a qualified professional before changing your diet, training or skincare, especially if you are pregnant, take medication or have a health condition.

CHAPTER 1

What was reported

1. She doesn't go to bed in makeup, and uses face wipes to take it off.[1]
2. 'I always start by cleansing in the shower,' she told Vogue UK.[1]
3. After the shower she dabs on an eye cream.[1]
4. She rotates between two facial mists.[1]
5. She uses exfoliating pads, and has said 'I use the Rich Cream' — a range her makeup artist swears by.[1]
6. She told ELLE UK she uses Bepanthen, 'actually a nipple cream for breastfeeding mothers', in place of lip balm.[1]
7. She swears by 'SPF, water and getting enough sleep.'[1]

CHAPTER 2

The reported routine

Left: what was reported. Right: a budget-friendly equivalent (Valtair adaptation — no brand endorsements, choose what suits your skin).

STEP	REPORTED	YOUR VERSION
Remove	Face wipes	Wipes or micellar water — then cleanse properly
Cleanse	In the shower	A gentle cleanser
Eye cream	After the shower	Optional
Exfoliate	Exfoliating pads	2–3 times a week, not daily
Moisturise	A rich cream	A moisturiser for your skin type
Hydrate	Facial mists	Optional mist
Lips	Bepanthen	Any plain ointment balm
Protect	SPF	Broad-spectrum SPF 30+

Products and steps reported at the time of the source articles; routines change.

Make it yours: by skin type

The same idea, tuned to your skin. General guidance only.

SKIN TYPE	ADJUST LIKE THIS
Oily / acne-prone	Gel cleanser; light non-comedogenic moisturiser; niacinamide or salicylic acid a few nights a week; matte SPF.
Dry	Cream or milky cleanser; richer ceramide moisturiser; hydrating serum (glycerin / hyaluronic); cream SPF.
Combination	Gentle gel-cream cleanser; lighter moisturiser on the T-zone, richer on dry areas; SPF every morning.
Sensitive	Fragrance-free everything; fewer steps; patch-test new products for 3 days on the jaw; mineral SPF often tolerated better.

INTRODUCE ONE PRODUCT AT A TIME

Wait about two weeks between new products so you know what is helping — or irritating.

CHAPTER 4

The lifestyle side

- Never sleep in makeup.
- SPF, water and sleep — every day.

MORNING / NIGHT CHEAT CARD

MORNING	NIGHT
Cleanse (or rinse)	Remove makeup & SPF
Serum (optional)	Cleanse
Moisturise	Treat (optional)
SPF 30+	Moisturise

CHAPTER 5

Read this first: cautions

- Patch-test every new product or DIY mix on your jaw or inner arm for 24–72 hours.
- Celebrity skin is also shaped by professional facials, make-up artists, lighting and editing — be kind to your own reflection.
- Retinoids and strong acids: avoid during pregnancy unless a doctor approves, and always wear SPF.
- Kitchen ingredients (lemon, raw spices) can irritate; skip them if your skin is sensitive.
- Persistent acne, rashes or pigmentation deserve a dermatologist, not more products.
